VIRTUAL KILNSEY SHOW 2020

This years format will be presented virtually and therefore no entry fees will be incurred. Please feel free to enter as many classes as you wish but for ease of administration, entries are limited to one entry per class per competitor.

RULES

Entrants can exhibit if you either live within a 15 mile radius of Kilnsey Show Field or have shown in the last two years.

All exhibits will be independently judged according to their individual sections.

No prize money or trophies will be allocated during the 2020 Virtual Show. A virtual certificate will be issued to those who come 1st, 2nd or 3rd in their classes.

Winners will be announced on the website and respective social media platforms on 'Show Day' (September 1st 2020)

One photograph, unless otherwise stated, is to be submitted via email to info@kilnseyshow.co.uk.

In all sections photographs must be taken after WEDNESDAY 15th July 2020 and submitted BEFORE SATURDAY 15TH AUGUST. STRICTLY NO ENTRIES will be accepted after the 15th August, any photographs submitted after the closing date will be disqualified. Multiple photographs for the same entry being submitted will result in the entry being disqualified.

Please ensure each photograph is accompanied by the exhibitors name and class number.

Upon entry clearly state the name of the entrant and for children under 16 years, state the age of the child.

Class E8 – Handwriting, in pencil, to set piece, by child 8 years and over on 'Show Day'.

What shall I call

My dear little dormouse?
His eyes are small,
But his tail is e-nor-mouse.

I sometimes call him Terrible John,
'Cos his tail goes on -
And on -
And on.
And I sometimes call him Terrible Jack,
'Cos his tail goes on to the end of his back.
And I sometimes call him Terrible James,
'Cos he says he likes me calling him names...
But I think I shall call him Jim,
'Cos I am fond of him.

The Christening by AA Milne
